WHO WE ARE

Founded in 1912, Leeds Art Fund is one of the oldest supporting 'friends' organisations for the visual arts in Great Britain. We have helped to acquire for the collections at Leeds Museums and Galleries more than 430 works by artists including Warhol, Bacon and Moore and we continue to play a vital role in the purchase of contemporary and historic art. We also support publications, conservation and educational activities.

Among recent acquisitions which Leeds Art Fund has supported are: Talking Statues - The Black Prince in Leeds City Square; John Latham Firenze (1967); and Bruce Mclean I Want My Crown (2014).

WHERE TO SEE OUR WORKS OF ART

Leeds Art Gallery is home to a world-class collection of British art. It showcases a wealth of works by key modern and contemporary artists and presents a dynamic exhibitions programme.
